Regional Monitoring and Evaluation Advisor, P-5

UNICEF has vacancies in its Regional Offices for:
Central and Eastern Europe and Central Asia - Geneva, Switzerland
Latin America and the Caribbean - Panama City, Panama*
Middle East and North Africa - Amman, Jordan

Closing Date: 25 September 2013

The United Nations Children’s Fund, the world’s leading organization working for the rights of children, offers unique opportunities to work for the survival, protection and development of children and women.

UNICEF is looking for innovative and motivated professionals who want to be a part of a complex and transformative change for children and women in some of our most dynamic regions of the world.

In these roles you will have the unique opportunity to drive the change for evidence-based advice and cutting-edge technical expertise for the development of policies, strategies, and systems for child rights monitoring and evaluation. You will also monitor the situation of children and women, develop capacities and strengthen data collection and analysis systems. In addition you will strengthen evaluation capacities and networks both nationally and globally.

To succeed in one of these roles you will have a foundation of an advanced degree and at least 12 years of relevant professional experience. Your values and competencies are equally important and we will be looking for evidence of well-developed personal skills. Fluency in English is essential for all posts; Spanish is required for the post in Latin America.

Please visit our website www.unicef.org/about/employ to create a profile, view additional information and review the full details of these jobs. Please reference E-VN-2013-001668 for this post.

UNICEF is committed to diversity and inclusion within its workforce, and encourages qualified female and male candidates from all national, religious and ethnic backgrounds, including persons living with disabilities, to apply to become a part of our organization.
